

BOOK SYNOPSIS

Vulnerable Populations: Contexts, Care and Support

A Festschrift in Honour of Professor Omolola Irinoye

Prof. Adekemi Olowokere

DISTINGUISHED CONTRIBUTORS

- Universities and Academic Institutions
- Healthcare and Public Health Practice
- Development Agencies and Non-Governmental Organizations
- Legal Practice and Human Rights
- Research and Policy Institutions
- Specialists in Nursing, Medicine, Sociology, Psychology, and Allied Health Sciences

PURPOSE AND SCOPE

This Festschrift:

- Celebrates the outstanding academic legacy and mentorship of Professor Omolola Irinoye.
- Reflects her lifelong commitment to nursing, public health, equity, and compassionate care.
- Brings together multidisciplinary perspectives on vulnerable populations.
- Provides evidence-informed knowledge for education, research, policy, and practice.

BOOK STRUCTURE

- 25 CHAPTERS
- 8 THEMATIC AREAS
- PRACTICAL EXAMPLES
- RELATABLE EXPERIENCES

- I. Concepts and Theories of Vulnerability
- II. Vulnerability across the Life Span
- III. Special Populations & Vulnerability
- IV. Vulnerability & Social Determinants of Health
- V. Vulnerability & Health Status
- VI. Research, Policy & Advocacy
- VII. Human Rights & Ethical Issues in care
- VIII. Funding Mechanism & Resource Mobilization

TARGET AUDIENCE:

- ✓ Students
- ✓ Healthcare Professionals
- ✓ Lecturers & Researchers
- ✓ Policymakers
- ✓ NGOs & Development Partners

EXPECTED CONTRIBUTIONS:

- ✓ Comprehensive reference text
- ✓ Bridges theory, research, and practice
- ✓ Promotes equity & interdisciplinary
Collaboration
- ✓ Supports teaching, research and policy

CONCLUSION

This volume stands as a lasting tribute to Professor Omolola Irinoye's distinguished legacy of scholarship, leadership, mentorship, and service to humanity."

THANK YOU

